Glass Gifts by Sammi

A new artist has set up shop in Yadkinville!!! Sammi Genton is the newest resident artist working in the YARD studio facility operated by the Yadkin Arts Council. Genton, a juried member of the Yadkin Valley Craft Guild, opened 'Glass Gifts by Sammi' in May after outgrowing her home studio space. The artist's medium of choice is glass and she works skillfully with the material to produce pendants, sun-catchers, and jewelry. In addition to selling her work, Genton will offer beginning glass fusing classes at her shop to help others hone the necessary skills needed to craft their very own wonderful glass keepsakes. Stop by & visit Sammi at her studio located at 240 F East Main Street to peruse the array of glass work, learn more about upcoming classes, and special offers. Glass Gifts by Sammi is open Tuesday-Saturday 11:00 AM-4:00PM and can be reached by phone (336) 529-7052 or email glasscrafter65@triad.rr.com. You can also view Genton's collection of handmade creations at her website: <http://www.etsy.com/shop/SimplySammi>.

Miss Emmily Antiques

Operating since 2006, Miss Emmily Antiques is a cozy shop located in downtown Yadkinville that specializes in the unique. Located at 217 East Main Street, owners Leesa & Phillip Pardue strive to find and share their rare treasures with both customers and guests. Though the couple is known for showcasing metal yard art, the shop is also fully stocked with collectibles and antiques of all sizes and prize points. Miss Emmily Antiques can be reached by phone (336) 655-5072 or email misseantiques@gmail.com and is open Monday-Friday from 10:00 AM-5:00 PM & Saturday 10:00 AM-3:00 PM. The store also has an online presence on Facebook, where customers can peruse new finds and connect with Leesa or Phillip. Contact Miss Emmily's Antiques for complete store hours and special offers.

The Small Business Center at Surry Community College offers many free business seminars on a range of topics to assist entrepreneurs to establish and grow businesses in Yadkin County. Contact Susan Coble, Small Business Center Coordinator at 336-386-3685 for upcoming classes.
