SECTION VIII.Special Information for Applicants

- * Do not announce, advertise, or promote your event until you have a signed permit. A pre-event assessment with public safety agencies may be required prior to issuance.
 - * Events with expected attendance of 5,000 or more must comply with the Department of Homeland Security Contingency Planning guidelines, as well as developing a Public Safety Plan as required by North Carolina Fire Code Chapter 4, Section 403.2.
 - * No permanent alterations to the street(s) will be permitted.
 - * The applicant may be responsible for hiring and paying off-duty law enforcement officers or reimbursing the Town of Yadkinville for the costs of providing on-duty law enforcement officers, to appropriately police street closures. For festivals, the applicant may be additionally responsible for hiring and paying off-duty law enforcement officers or reimbursing the Town of Yadkinville for the costs of providing city staff, including but not limited to, on-duty law enforcement officers and emergency medical technicians.
 - * The Police Department shall determine the number of officers needed to appropriately police street closures and for internal security, and the number of emergency medical technicians needed, and the time when such services shall commence and end.
 - * The applicant acknowledges and agrees to comply with ordinances and in addition agrees:
 - (a) No speeches, posters, placards, literature, etc., shall contain any profanity, obscenity or material that is likely to be such as to cause a breach of the peace by either participants or spectators.
 - (b) Any item that is deposited so as to constitute “littering” either by a participant or spectator, will be removed from the streets, sidewalks or other public areas, and disposed of properly by the applicant. The applicant is responsible to keep the area they occupy and the immediate surrounding areas safe and free from any hazards, and to leave the area clean upon their departure. Any hazardous conditions are to be reported immediately to town police officers or other officials.
 - (c) Any violation of any ordinance of the Town of Yadkinville, or of the laws of the State of North Carolina, shall be cause for the Chief of Police or his designee, to revoke the permit, order the event cancelled, and the participants to disperse in an orderly manner.
 - (d) By executing this Special Event Permit Application and submitting said Application to the Town of Yadkinville, Applicant agrees to indemnify the Town of Yadkinville and save the Town of Yadkinville and its Officials, Representatives, and Employees harmless from any injuries, illnesses, claims, demands, actions, lawsuits, or any other damages of any kind whatsoever to any person or property, including any related expenses, fees, or costs, whether direct or indirect which are occasioned wholly or in part by any act or omission by the Applicant or occasioned wholly or in part by any of Applicant’s representatives, employees, volunteers, patrons, licensees, agents, vendors, exhibitors, or other persons, firms, or organizations which are affiliated with Applicant in the proposed Special Event, and which are related to the use of or occupancy of any property of the Town of Yadkinville or which are related in any way to the proposed Special Event.
- * Permits may be denied, revoked, or cancelled at any time for the safety of the public, lack of available resources to safely manage the event, or any other reason, at the discretion of the Chief of Police or designee.
